Minsi Tribe, No. 357

Improved Order of Red Men

Organized, 6th Sun, Hunting Moon, G. S. D. 404

(December 6, 1895)

The publication of this Historical and Business Directory was made possible only through the kind favors of the business and professional friends of Minsi Tribe, No. 357, I. O. R. M. The "ads" on these pages are those of responsible business people, who have earned our good will and patronage through their willing contribution, and we commend them to your favorable consideration.

The Committee has labored diligently to produce a volume that is undoubtedly the most complete business directory ever published in Northampton and congratulate Minsi Tribe on its accomplishment.

In appreciation of the trust reposed in us by the Tribe and the uniform courtesy with which we were received in the performance of our duties, we express our sincere thanks to all who extended the "glad hand."

Most respectfully yours,

LEWIS A. EISENHART, Chairman,
ELVIN J. HIESTAND, Sec'y.,
WILLIAM W. RABERT, Treas.,
FRANCIS C. RABERT,
JACOB E. DEILY,

Committee.

OUR ORPHAN SYSTEM

The Great Council of the United States has probably evolved the best system that has received commendation and recognition from men who have had the widest possible outlook in life.

The I. O. R. M. system leaves orphans where they are, places them under the most favorable conditions possible without taking them to a "Home" where they lose their personality to develop the characteristics which gives them the ability and experience to grapple with a cruel and practical world.

HISTORY OF MINSI TRIBE

Twenty years in the existence of a fraternity makes a celebration of the event of more than passing importance. It is a moment of peculiar interest to the members thereof and marking the span of time since the institution of Minsi Tribe, No. 357, Improved Order of Red Men, with a fitting celebration is only to be expected.

Pages would be required to tell of the numerous benefits to the community through the existence and prosperity of Minsi Tribe. A few lines must suffice to tell the story briefly. Brethren Milton and Monroe Coleman, then members of Oppymannihook Tribe, were instrumental in the organization of this Tribe, with 84 applicants, in Grey's Hall, December 6, 1895. Before the charter was closed the membership had reached 112 and there was steady growth. There were periods of depression, too, and in April, 1901, the treasury had dwindled to $800. Through the infusion of new blood shortly afterwards the conditions were reversed and the welfare of the Tribe again became the objective with a corresponding increase in the finances and the membership. Today the total worth of the body is $10,294.99 which includes the investment in the former Grey building, which by strange coincidences was the place where the first meetings were conducted. Here Minsi Tribe is permanently located after meeting in Sieger's Hall, Coplay, for nearly two years soon after organization, thence returning to Northampton and meeting in Sheiry's Hall, until the Grey Building was acquired.

The present membership is 225 and frequent boom sessions and the unselfish devotion of members brings in new faces, keeping the membership on the increase.

Our members are thoroughly imbued with the principles of Redmanship, hence the celebration of the twentieth anniversary and the dedication of this historical and record pamphlet to this event which has provoked such helpful interest in our grand order.

Twenty are in jail; eight are in the chain gang.

Fifteen were sent to the poor house; one was hanged.

Three were sent to the insane asylum.

Most of the balance ain't worth fooling with – they've got no money.

We are obliged to have new customers—fresh, young blood.

Or we will have to shut up shop.

Don't make any difference who you are—we need you. You will be welcome.

If you once get started with us we guarantee to hold you. Our goods are sure.

Canal boats pass the door.

Come early, stay late."

THE IMP. ORDER OF RED MEN.

The Improved Order of Red Men leads all other American Fraternities by reason of its unrivalled multiplicity of features which appeal to the wants and ideals of our citizenship. If one has special patriotic pride in the history of our country, its form of government and its flag, he is pleased to find that our earlier organizations nursed the spirit of national freedom in their secret council fires until it flamed into the glorious republic upon whose emblem he gazes with delight. If a vein of romance runs through his soul he finds in our prototype the beautiful characteristics, the bravery and the virtues, that are dramatically exemplified in our ceremonies. If he is a materialist the proof of our utility is on record in the fact that a large proportion of the tribal receipts for dues are paid for the relief of the sick and burial of the dead. If he is a humanitarian our unique and successful care of our orphans testifies to our right to his approval. If friendship is his need he finds it in the fraternal ties which hold us so close that hearts touch, and the sweet aroma of it is in every council brand and every peace pipe wherever Red Men congregate. It is our rightful claim that men find aspiration in our council fires that educates them to the higher planes in life, that cultivates their minds, wears the rough edges from them, and enlarges their sympathies, so that they are better and happier citizens than would be the case without their experiences as Red Men. It is this all-aroundness of our Order that has given us our 650,000 members, and a growing influence in the betterment not only of our individual members but also of the general community.

WHY IS IT SO POPULAR?

Why is the Imp. Order of Red Men so popular throughout the United States? This question is one that is often asked by the pale-face. Why should it not be one of the most popular orders in existence? It is founded on the grandest principles that can be given to mankind—Freedom, Friendship and Charity. It believes in working in harmony for the best interest of the welfare of our souls and humanity, to act promptly and honorably in protecting its members, their homes and their country. To assist a brother and his loved ones who may unfortunately be placed in a position that they are unable to procure the necessities of life, to visit and care for their sick, to look after the little ones when left on the charities of this merciless world without a helping hand as grow into manhood and womanhood, and to teach them that the Great Spirit should be their guiding star through the struggles of life, to insist on the brothers observing the laws of the country, to lend encouraging words to a brother when the world would kick him into oblivion in its mad race for wealth and fame, to make the social life of its members a pleasant as well as a profitable one. These are a few of its aims. Can anyone find a reason why it should not be one of the best organizations in existence? Its creed is Morality, its teachings are those of democracy, but in no way do they interfere with the religious principles or political belief of any man. Cut this out and put it into your hat for the first pale-face that you meet who seems to be interested in Redmanship.

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—
The men that are good and the men that are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Nor hurl the cynic's ban,
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man."
